

JUNIOR FLEETERS

Can you add some colour to this important day in 1788 when Lieutenant Arthur Phillip was declared as Governor, and the laws of the new colony were officially put in place. Governor Phillip was instructed to begin cultivation, establish a settlement on Norfolk Island, and to make friends with 'the natives' and encourage everyone to live peacefully with them.